8 COURSE FARM TO TABLE DINING EXPERIENCE

Located through a small village, in the jungle of Bohol Island is located "The Frmcy." Living by the motto "let food and nature be thy medicine", this experience touches on all the local dishes you won't get anywhere else. All the food provided will be grown directly on site or from the neighboring villages, this will be the freshest Filipino foods you could get. This dining experience will touch on many different flavours through 8 courses of food alongside with fresh teas and juices provided.

JEEPNEY TOUR EL NIDO

As the most common mode of transportation in the Philippines being the Jeepney, you will get a taste of how the locals travel. Dating back to World War II, when the Americans pulled out of the Philippines leaving a massive surplus of jeeps here in the Philippines. The Filipinos creatively used all the leftover jeeps to create a rideshare system 100 years before Uber was created. Experience Palawan off the beaten track, including three different stops along the Lio Beach, Nacpan Beach, and Bulalacao Waterfalls.

3D/2N EXPEDITION WITH MARINE CONSERVATIONIST

Climb aboard a traditional MotoBanca and familiarize yourself with the smiling faces of our local crew who will guide you through the shallow waters and hidden coves for the next two days. Set sail through the turquoise waters, white sand beaches, and lush jungle foliage. Put on your fins and swim with the beautiful schools of colorful fish, vibrant coral reefs, sea turtles and – if you are lucky – eagle rays, whale sharks and dolphins. As you wipe your face dry, follow the scent of fragrant herbs and spices that leads to a feast of traditional cuisines and fresh seafood grilled to perfection. Savor every bite of these exquisite dishes as you sit by your tent and listen to the sound of waves. This 3 day 2 night experience offers you island experiences on a secluded island without another tourist in sight.

LOBOC RIVER RESORT

Nestled along the picturesque Loboc River in Bohol, the Loboc River Resort stands out as a uniquely quirky place to stay. Why? Because where else can you wake up to the sounds of birds chirping and enjoy your breakfast next to a beautiful river. Loboc River Resort offers a blend of traditional Filipino architecture with modern comforts, creating a one-of-a-kind ambiance that celebrates local culture and heritage.

SIARGAO ISLAND

Siargao Island stands out for its unique vibe. Known as the "Surfing Capital of the Philippines," it attracts surfers from all over the world to ride its famous wave, Cloud 9. But beyond surfing, Siargao's pristine beaches, clear waters, hidden caves, lagoons, and rock pools. Its local culture is warm and inviting, inviting travelers to immerse themselves in island life. This laid-back atmosphere encourages relaxation as well as adventure, making Siargao a special destination for all. There is a stories that circulate on the island about "the magic of Siargao" this magic is known to make people want to stay longer, extending their vacation or deciding to live here.

THE ISLA EXPERIENCE - BOODLE FIGHT DINNER

Immersing yourself in all the local dishes exactly how the locals would eat with the nation-wide famous "boodle fight". In most countries, a fight is deemed to be a bad thing but in a country with some of the friendliest people in the world this experience will be wanting you to have more "fights". In a nutshell this Filipino tradition begins with all the food laid out on banana leaves which creates a clean surface to lay out all the dishes. The "boodle" part comes from the American colonization that was a slang word for snacks and the "fight" (figuratively not literally) part comes from everyone gathering around the banana leaves which you "fight" for a good spot around the food in front of your favorite dishes.
